

Name	Kristin Kent
School/District	John Silber Early Learning Center
Email	mdiprizio@chelseaschools.com
Grade Level	PreK-1st
Content Area	Science
Topic/unit/core selection	Mammals
Chant Title and Author	The Mammals In The World, by Mariele Di Prizio, Kristin Kent, and Joanna Glennon
Copy and Paste Chant Here	The mammals in the world have lungs to breathe air, lungs to breathe air, lungs to breath air (breathe in and out) Most mammals are born, not hatched from eggs, hatched from eggs, hatched from eggs (use hands to demonstrate egg hatching) The mammals in the world have spines and bones, spines and bones, spines and bones (point to spine and arms) The mammals in the world have fur or hair, fur or hair, fur or hair (point to hair) The babies of mammals drink their milk, drink their milk, drink their milk (drink milk) Mammals are special in many ways, many ways, many ways (hands fan over head) Mammals are special in many ways, many ways, many ways
Additional instructions/melody/tempo etc.	Wheels On The Bus